Naperville, IL 60565

Naperville School District 203 is proud to continue the Science and Technology Camps for girls and boys who are entering 1st through 6th grade for the 2015-16 school year. This is the 26th year for the camps originally developed from scientific literacy grants received by the Illinois State Board of Education. Since 1990, these camps have provided over 9500 area students with a variety of science and math experiences.

All area students from Naperville and surrounding communities are welcome to attend. All camps are taught by teams of certified teachers with elementary and/or junior high background. All camps will be held at MAPLEBROOK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL.

All of the Science Camps listed below focus on the integration of math, science, and technology through a series of hands-on science experiences correlated with problem-solving and higher-level thinking. Students can sign up for more than one camp selection. Camp activities are repeated each week with a new group of students.

A. “Exploring the Wonder of My World”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grade 1
- ◆ Allows students to explore all areas of science while refining their skills of observation. A different branch of science studied each day.
- ◆ A fun filled week of inquiry based science activities demonstrating the excitement of discovery.
- ◆ Offered three weeks. Tuition: $165

B. “Exciting Challenges for Future Scientists”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grade 2
- ◆ Explores many life, physical, and earth science activities and experiments with an emphasis on “hands on” and inquiry based learning. Young scientists will love the stimulating science camp session.
- ◆ Offered all four weeks. Tuition: $165.

C. “On the Frontiers of Science: Experiments that OOZE, BUBBLE, DRIP or BOUNCE”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grade 3
- ◆ Camp explores all areas of science with activities that ooze, bubble, drip, or fly. Special emphasis placed on problem solving and technological applications of science concepts.
- ◆ Offered all four weeks. Tuition: $165.

D. “Voyage to Mars”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grades 4 & 5
- ◆ Activities & science experiments simulating a voyage to Mars and colonization of the planet. Beginning to intermediate rocketry with take home model.
- ◆ Offered four weeks. Tuition: $165.

E. “Space Mysteries”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grades 5 & 6
- ◆ Activities & science experiments revolving around a space visit to Mars followed by a safe return to Earth. Included are basic electronics, engineering, circuit boards, experienced rocketry, as well as robotics.
- ◆ Offered three weeks. Tuition: $185 includes own robot to build and keep.

F. “Mysteries of Earth...Ecology and Technology”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grades 3 & 4
- ◆ Activities/experiments focusing on the ecology/environment of the Earth as well as technological advancements. Early life on the Earth (Jurassic and other periods) is also explored.
- ◆ Offered two weeks. Tuition: $165.

G. “Exploring the Earth...Ecology and Technology (advanced topics)”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grades 5 & 6
- ◆ Activities/experiments focusing on the ecology/environment of the Earth as well as on technological advancements.
- ◆ Archaeological dig as well as in depth look at creatures and habitats.
- ◆ Offered two weeks. Tuition: $165.

I. “CSI – Forensic Science: Case of the Missing Cookie”

- ◆ For boys and girls entering grades 4 & 5
- ◆ Students play the role of a detective unit and must use forensic tests to solve this delicious dilemma.
- ◆ Offered four weeks. Tuition: $165

Science Camps for Girls

The Girls’ Science Camp was created to encourage and interest more girls into taking science courses as they continue through school and to pursue science related careers. The activities are chosen to encourage collaboration and confidence in completing scientific experiments from the life, physical, and earth sciences.

J. “Girls in Science Rule!”

- ◆ For girls entering grades 5 & 6
- ◆ Sparks an interest in science and uses learning approaches based on research as to how girls learn best.
- ◆ Experiments/activities from all areas of science! A different branch of science studied each day.
- ◆ Examine the lives of famous women scientists
- ◆ Offered three weeks. Tuition: $185 includes own robot to build and keep.

Please complete the application form (last page) and mail it back by June 4th, with your check made out to Naperville C.U. School Dist. 203, send to: Science Camp c/o Matt Olejnik, Meadow Glens Elementary School, 1150 Muirhead Ave., Naperville, IL 60565.
