History Connectors and Building Interpreters

Informational Meetings (Mandatory)

Resolve to get involved in the New Year! Teens in grades 8 to 12 and adults can volunteer as History Connectors and work with our visitors at special hands-on activity stations, Settlement Sundays, summer camp, Girl Scout programs and more. No costumes are required.

Adults ages 18 and older can volunteer as Building Interpreters to tell the stories of the past and how they relate to the present inside the historic museum buildings. Through their interpretation or demonstrations of special skills, such as Blacksmithing, these volunteers provide an exciting and engaging experience that stimulates conversation and promotes an appreciation for Naperville's history. Period clothing is an option.

Option 1:
Saturday, January 28, 2017
10:00-11:30 a.m.

Option 2:
Tuesday, January 31, 2017
7:00-8:30 p.m.

Juniors Volunteers

Parent Informational Meetings (Mandatory)

Young people currently in grades 4-7 in the month of January are eligible to become Junior Volunteers at Naper Settlement. From April through October, the Juniors, dressed in period clothing like petticoats and overalls, play typical games and do chores and activities of the past. What a great way to give back to the community, make new friends, "play" while volunteering, build self esteem and so much more! Parents of new Junior Volunteers must attend one of the meetings listed to the right.

Option 1:
Thursday, January 26, 2017
7:00-8:30 p.m.

Option 2:
Saturday, January 28, 2017
1:00-2:30 p.m.

Training takes place throughout the winter to prepare for the summer season, which begins on April 1. Visit our website or contact the Director of Organizational Resources at 630.305.5256 or email nsvolunteer@naperville.il.us today to join in a fun, rewarding and interactive adventure!

History Speaks Lecture Series: Bartholdi and His Lady of Copper

Sunday, January 8, 4-5 PM

Non-Members: $10/adult, $9/youth (4-12) & students; Members: $8/adult, $7/ youth (4-12)

French sculptor, Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, wanted to produce a work of colossal proportions to express his love of liberty - a statue that would be a gift from the French people to America. The statue of Liberty was Bartholdi's greatest achievement, a 20-year adventure of devotion and labor involving the finest engineers, architects and craftsmen. This stunning presentation features the illustrations of award winning Artist/Presenter, Jim Weren.

Naperville Plays

Saturday, January 14, 10 AM-2 PM
